

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Centennial of South Dakota's statehood is in the year 1989; and,

WHEREAS, Trees are an invaluable resource for South Dakota serving to purify air and water; conserve energy and precious topsoil; provide habitat for wildlife; protect livestock, crops, homes and roads from blowing snow and high winds; and enrich the lives of all South Dakotans in many other intangible ways; and,

WHEREAS, A Centennial Tree Campaign is currently underway to better facilitate the planting of millions of trees in both rural and urban areas, to establish long-term planting efforts, to encourage South Dakotans to properly care for existing trees, and to create an awareness of the values and benefits provided by trees; and,

WHEREAS, There are few more right or appropriate gestures than to leave the legacy of properly located, planted, and cared for trees to be enjoyed by future generations; and,

WHEREAS, Each year on the last Friday in April, Arbor Day, the people of South Dakota pay special thanks for the wonderful gifts the trees provide by dedicating themselves to improving their environment and conditions of life through the planting of trees, shrubs, and flowers:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, April 26, 1985, as

ARBOR DAY

In South Dakota, and I urge all South Dakotans to recognize the importance of trees and forests in South Dakota. I further urge all South Dakotans to join together in the Centennial Tree Planting Campaign to learn more about the values and benefits of trees and how to care for trees, to enthusiastically manage our existing benefits for a never-ending yield of all benefits, and to plant more trees for South Dakota's future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five
